

NETWORKWORLD'S

HONORING 50 COMPANIES AND THEIR GROUNDBREAKING TECHNOLOGY PROJECTS

HEAD ONLINE FOR DETAILED PROFILES ON EACH OF THE WINNING PROJECTS LISTED HERE.

<http://www.networkworld.com/allstar/2005/>

Arizona State's All-Star project leaders Jack Hsu (left) and Sam DiGangi Read profile >

2005 ENTERPRISE ALL-STARS

Winner	Industry	Technology category	Project summary
Arizona State University	Education Click here for details on each of the winning education industry projects.	Storage	NAS, clustering, more
Clark County School District		Convergence	VoIP
Coppin State University		Convergence	VoIP, and more
School District of Philadelphia		Convergence	Converged network, over optical Ethernet
University of Arkansas		Wireless	A huge wireless mesh network using auto-discovery and self-routing technology.
University of Miami, Miller School of Medicine		Wireless	WLAN
University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill	Financial services Click here for details on each of the winning financial services industry projects.	Security	Intrusion prevention, detection
Citigroup		Management	Configuration and change management
Farm Credit Services of America		Applications	CRM integration
Fidelity Investments		Management	BSM
Fifth Third Bancorp		Management	Integrated app management
Fortis Prime Fund (Fortis Fund Services)		Storage	iSCSI for enterprise-scale backups
GMAC Commercial Holding Corp.		WAN	MPLS net
H&R Block Financial Advisors		Applications	SOA management
Lehman Brothers		Security	Identity management
Principal Financial Group		Security	SSL VPN, remote access
Prudential Financial		WAN	MPLS net
State Street	WAN	MPLS net
State Street Global Advisors	Storage	SAN, SAN management
UMB Bank	Convergence	VoIP, performance management

continued...

<http://www.networkworld.com/allstar/2005/>

State Street's All-Star project leaders, left to right, Gordon Bither, Richard Hamm, Steve White and Paul Sullivan. Read profile >

MetroHealth's All-Star project leaders Vince Miller and Joan McFaul. Read profile >

...continued

2005 ENTERPRISE ALL-STARS

Defense Finance and Accounting Service	Government  Click here for details on each of the winning government industry projects.	Management	Standardization
Lee County Sheriff		Wireless	Wireless CDMA
Mine Safety and Health Administration		Security	security information management
South Carolina Dept of Revenue		E-commerce	Web infrastructure
U.S. Coast Guard Operations System Center		Applications	Directory services, e-mail
Austin Radiological Association	Healthcare  Click here for details on each of the winning healthcare industry projects.	Wireless	Optical wireless
Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center		Wireless	Asset tracking, infrastructure
Covenant Health		Servers	Server consolidation, virtualization
Lake Forest Hospital		WAN	Enterprise network build out
Medco Health Solutions		Management	BSM
MetroHealth System		Convergence	Wireless VoIP
Mountain States Health Alliance		Wireless	RF broadband backbone, more
Novartis AG		Security	Global security, compliance
Parkview Health System		WAN	Sonet
Emerson Process Management		Manufacturing  Click here for details on each of the winning manufacturing industry projects.	E-commerce
Goodrich Aerostructures	E-commerce		Parts catalog, online
Lockheed Martin	Wireless		WLAN
National Instruments	Security		Security appliances
Nook Industries	E-commerce		3D online catalog for customized parts ordering
BNSF Railway	Transportation  Industry winners	Convergence	VoIP
JB Hunt Transport		Applications	J2EE account management, remote imaging
Reliant Energy	More winners  Click here for details on each of the projects from these additional industries.	Applications	Content management, SOX compliance
The Weather Channel		Storage	Linux-based
The Weather Underground		Servers	Clustering, plus more
United Way of the Texas Gulf Coast		Convergence	VoIP, video